Timely Calls on Frequently Asked Questions about Special Education

Can We Talk? SERIES

The PEAL Center is pleased to announce the latest training opportunity for folks on the go. Dial in to hear a short, concise one hour training on a hot topic we get calls about. On the line will be a trainer and a parent advisor who will share the latest information on the topics you want to talk about. Preregister and receive the materials we have to share by mail or by e-mail.

At the end of the call we will give you information on how to reach us so we can answer your personal questions in private.

When you register we will give you the toll free call-in number to join the conference call and we will forward the training materials to you.

Can We Talk? TOPIC 1

"Resolving Disagreements"

Parents are given the official Procedural Safeguards Notice at least once a year and many report that they have never read this difficult, dense document. Dial in to hear a concise, clear explanation of your legal rights and how they apply when there is a disagreement. We will discuss the importance of positive partnerships and what you need to know if you can't reach an agreement.

Persons requiring accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), please contact Ceil Belasco at the PEAL Center, 866-950-1040 (toll free)

Thursday, December 4

Join us at lunchtime, 12:00 Noon -1:00 PM or in the evening at 7:00-8:00 PM

Can We Talk? TOPIC 2

"Why are we talking about Extended School Year in December?"

Extended School Year (ESY) discussion should be part of every IEP meeting. Find out what you need to know about ESY and how it applies in your situation. We need to talk now because the time line is already ticking on this important service! You will hear how eligibility is determined and the dates you need to remember.
